"These photos reflect my highlight moments during this semester. Besides studies, it has been about making new international friends along the hiking trail and on the other hand, feeling the history of the city by admiring its unique architecture. Through the selected photos I want to convey the message of how diverse Innsbruck really is. Thank you for this memorable experience!"

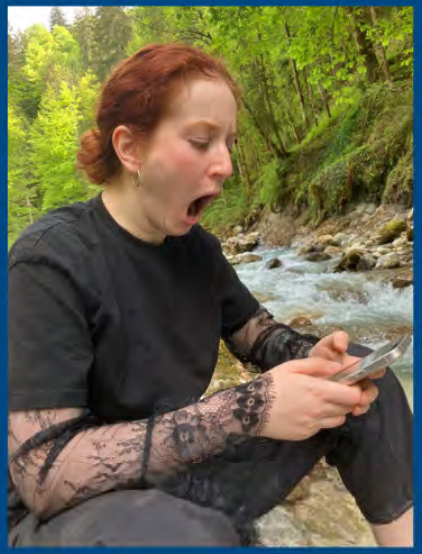
"The best bubble tea in town."

"My first ski trip in Innsbruck and the best reward I received after not dying on the slope (I'm not good in skiing)."

"My first hike and again the best reward."

"The beautiful castle of Salzburg."



"My second hike, realized that I'm not a morning person."

"The same hike, this photo I took right after I slipped and fell on my butt. "
