

distinguished guest.

Tuesday, 9th December 2014, 5:00-6:30 p.m., MCI Aula

the future of global consulting.

RALF KALMBACH

Global Head Automotive, A.T. Kearney, Chicago (designated, 01/2015)

A.T. Kearney was founded in 1926, is a leading global management consulting firm with offices in more than 40 countries and has been trusted advisors to the world's foremost organizations. A.T. Kearney is a partner-owned firm, committed to helping clients achieve immediate impact and growing advantage on their most mission-critical issues.

Mr. Kalmbach served as Head Global Competence Automotive and Member of the Global Executive Committee at Roland Berger AG for several years. He also served as Managing Director and Senior Partner of Mercer Management Consulting. Mr. Kalmbach joined Roland Berger Strategy Consultants in 2004 as Head of the Global Automotive Competence Center. In 2015 he will start his new position at A.T. Kearney.

Mr. Kalmbach started his professional career in 1986 with Daimler Benz AG in product planning. He has more than a decade in consulting. His key projects cover a wide range - from complete business design and launch planning for a high-end niche sports car to due diligence processes for various suppliers.

He is the Author of several books and a large number of articles on automotive issues. He is frequently quoted by a range of publications, and is recognized as an industry expert. Mr. Kalmbach holds a Master's degree in Mechanical Engineering and Business Administration from the University of Karlsruhe.

Free participation for members and guests of MCI Alumni & Friends. Please make your reservation to alumni@mci.edu.