DR. KIM R. HOLMES

Acting Senior Vice President, Research
The Heritage Foundation, Washington, D.C.

The Heritage Foundation is an American conservative think tank based in Washington, D.C. Heritage has a significant influence in U.S. public policy making based on the principles of free enterprise, limited government, individual freedom, traditional American values, and a strong national defense. It is considered to be one of the most influential conservative research organizations in the United States.

Kim R. Holmes is an author and a former American diplomat and Assistant Secretary of State. A Distinguished Fellow at Heritage Foundation, he speaks and writes on a variety of issues facing the United States.

Between 1992 and 2012, he served twice as the foundation's Vice President of Foreign and Defense Policy Studies and Director of its Kathryn and Shelby Cullom Davis Institute for International Studies.

From 2002 to 2005, he served as the United States Assistant Secretary of State for International Organization Affairs.

Holmes holds a Master's degree and a Ph.D. from Georgetown University and has a bachelor's degree from the University of Central Florida.
