NATALIA GHERMAN

Candidate for Secretary-General of the United Nations, New York

Ambassador Natalia Gherman has previously served as acting Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs and European Integration of the Republic of Moldova.

As a Chief Negotiator, she led Moldova towards concluding the Association Agreement with the EU, Deep and Comprehensive Free Trade Area and visa liberalization regime with the EU.

She served as also as Ambassador to Austria / Permanent Representative to the UN Agencies in Vienna and OSCE and Ambassador to Sweden, Finland and Norway.

In 2014, Natalia Gherman was selected by The Guardian to rank among the most impressive "Seven women to watch in global politics who are leading change all over the world".

The event is jointly organized by the Honorary Consulate of Moldova with special thanks to Hon. Cons. Prof. MMag. Dr.h.c. Ernst Madlener.

Free participation for members of MCI Alumni & Friends, guests of the Honorary Consulate of the Republic of Moldova in Innsbruck and invited friends. Please register at alumni@mci.edu.
