Sat, June 14, 2008, 11:00–12:30 hours, MCI Aula

u.s. elections
where will obama & mcccain lead the world?

CHARLES E. MORRISON
President, East-West Center, Honolulu

Charles E. Morrison has been president of the East-West Center since 1998. EWC is an education and research organization established by the U.S. Congress in 1960 to strengthen relations among the peoples and nations of Asia, the Pacific, and the U.S.

Charles E. Morrison was elected international chair of the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council in 2005. He is a founding member of the U.S. Asia Pacific Council, the U.S. National Committee for Pacific Economic Cooperation and a member of the U.S. Committee for Security Cooperation in Asia Pacific. He is a past chair of the U.S. National Consortium of Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation Study Centers.

A former director of the Center’s Program on International Economics and Politics, Charles E. Morrison is a former U.S. Senate aide and a research adviser to binational Japan-U.S. commissions.

Charles E. Morrison holds a Ph.D. in international relations from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies and has published numerous acknowledged books and articles.

DISCUSSION CHAIRED BY FLOO WEISSMANN
Senior Editor for Politics, Tiroler Tageszeitung

Floo Weissmann currently works as Senior Editor for Politics for “Tiroler Tageszeitung”, the largest daily newspaper in western Austria. He specializes in international affairs and has written numerous pieces on U.S. politics and the election year. Mr. Weissmann was born and lives in Innsbruck.

PARTICIPATION

The evening concludes with light refreshments supported by Zipfer.
Free participation for members and invited guests of MCI Alumni & Friends

REGISTRATION

Please note that only your definite reservation under alumni@mci.edu will allow us to guarantee seating and catering for all visitors.