peace and stability in the middle east and beyond
a hostage to iranian intransigence and adventurism

HM REZA PAHLAVI
Heir to the Throne of Iran

Since the establishment of the clerical regime in Iran and the passing of his father, the late Shah of Iran, His Majesty Reza Pahlavi has been a vocal advocate of the principles of freedom, democracy and human rights for his countrymen.

In 1978, Reza Pahlavi, then Crown Prince of Iran, left his homeland to complete his higher education in the United States. Reza Pahlavi completed the United States Air Force Training Program at the Reese Air Force Base in Lubbock, Texas. He is a Political Science graduate of the University of Southern California.

Reza Pahlavi has lived in Morocco, Egypt and, since 1984, the United States. He married Yasmine Etemad Amini in 1986. Yasmine is a graduate of George Washington University’s School of Law. Together with his wife and three daughters, Noor (1992), Iman (1993) and Farah (2004), they reside in the state of Maryland.

DISCUSSION CHAIRED BY FRANZ FISCHLER
President Eco-Social Forum Europe; Former European Commissioner

Franz Fischler was European Commissioner for agriculture and rural development from 1995 to 1999; from September 1999 to 2004 he was also responsible for the European fisheries policy. Since 2004 Franz Fischler has been doing consultancy work, giving lectures, holding speeches and fulfilling his tasks as president of the Eco-Social Forum Europe.

Participation

For confirmed guests of MCI Alumni & Friends only.
The evening concludes with refreshments supported by HYPO TIROL BANK
Wir realisieren Ideen.